Who doesn't know someone in hospital? There's a convenient way to get a cheery greeting to the hospitalized: hospital volunteers deliver it. Folk receiving these notes have mentioned how important they are. Check out: <https://horizonnb.ca/patients-visitors/send-a-message-to-a-patient/>

Food Bank families rely on our weekly and monthly generosity.

This Sunday's public worship will be at St John's, Richmond Corner, (9 am), led by Canon Walter Williams.

Last evening the Wednesday summer services at St Mark's began their 16th season, continuing into September. Prior to the service Marjorie Burt Lyons offered a moving piano meditation. It concluded with "Be Still, for the presence of the Lord", the hymn with which for many years we opened the summer series. The whole service was a quiet, satisfying way to end a busy day.

There is good news. Few local crimes provoke more just indignation than a trusted caregiver defrauding the vulnerable. Such was the lead story from Woodstock Provincial Court, as reported in the River Valley Sun's June issue (p20). Rising above the years-long betrayal of trust was the response from victim Patty Connors, a well-known athlete and co-creator of the award-winning summer flower display outside St Luke's. In court she said to her predator: "It's alright. I forgive you."
